

MHLR Vol. 50
Just Us and the Law Podcast

WHAT IT IS

The Just Us and the Law podcast addresses timely issues or current events in the law and presents an overarching view of areas of the law.

PANEL DISCUSSION

The Just Us and the Law panel discussions typically feature two to three scholars in the chosen field (or specific case, issue, or event) of law. All questions will be solicited and then submitted to the panelists before the discussion date; however, additional questions may come up during the panel discussion.

GUEST DISCUSSION

The Just Us and the Law guest discussions typically feature one scholar in the chosen field of law. All questions will be solicited and submitted to the guest before the discussion date; however, additional questions may arise during the discussion.

LENGTH

Episodes of the Just Us and the Law podcast can vary in length. We aim for approximately one-hour panel discussions and thirty-minute guest discussions.

FORMAT

The Just Us and the Law panel and guest discussions will take place via Zoom. The discussions will be recorded and made available on Apple Podcast, Spotify, and YouTube. The discussions will be transcribed and made available on Amicus Curiae at <https://mhlawreview.org/amicus-curiae-blog-entries/>.

WHAT TO SUBMIT FOR CONSIDERATION

1. A statement of Just Us and the Law podcast topic.
 - a. Topic;
 - b. Whether you are proposing a panel discussion or a guest discussion; and
 - c. 150–200 word summary of your submission.

WHERE TO SEND YOUR SUBMISSION

1. <https://mhlawreview.org/submit/>, or
2. submissions.lawreview@mitchellhamline.edu